

Chinese Finance Association of America

美国华人金融协会

Chinese Finance Association of America (CFAA) cordially invites you to join us for our

Inaugural Networking Reception

Featuring keynote speaker

Eric D. Hargan

Former Deputy Secretary
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

"Financial Impact of Healthcare Reform in the US"

The goal of this reception is to provide you a great opportunity to get to know other Chinese finance professionals and exchange ideas about career development especially during current economy downturn. You'll also get the chance to know our board of directors and learn from them about their professional experiences in investment, futures markets, exchange trading, etc. Lastly, our keynote speaker Mr. Eric Hargan will provide you an up-to-date view about the financial impact on both the US economy and individuals from the potential healthcare reform by the Obama administration. He will also share his perspectives and views on the Chinese healthcare system.

Thursday, April 23, 2009

5:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

The Union League Club of Chicago
Heritage Room, 2nd Floor
65 West Jackson Blvd
Chicago, Illinois

Chinese Finance Association of America

美国华人金融协会

Agenda of CFAA Inaugural Reception 4/23/09

- 5:00 – 5:30pm Registration
- 5:30 – 7:00pm Networking reception with Chinese finance professionals (Hors d'oeuvres & beverages Served)
- 7:00 – 7:05pm Welcome speech by Vivian Lin, President of CFAA
- 7:05 – 7:10pm Introduction of Board of Directors of CFAA
- 7:10 – 7:35pm Keynote speech by Eric Hargan
- 7:35 – 7:50pm Q&A Session
- 7:50 – 8:00pm Conclusion

Fee: RSVP $25, Walk-in $30 (cash only)

RSVP by 4/21/2009 to Rex Hong at event@ChineseFinanceAssociation.org

Biography of the speaker: Eric D. Hargan is a partner in the Health Law Department of McDermott Will & Emery LLP based in its Chicago office. Eric provides advice in the areas of transactions, healthcare regulations, healthcare policy and government relations. Prior to joining McDermott, Eric served as the Deputy Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, overseeing all operations, including Medicare, Medicaid, the regulation of food, drugs and medical devices, public health, welfare programs, medical research and other activities. He was also the recipient of the Secretary's Award for Distinguished Service.

Mr. Hargan has spoken widely and been published both in the U.S. and overseas on health-related topics, including Medicare and Medicaid reform, food safety, health law, quarantine, public health preparedness, vaccines and pandemic influenza. He was a member of the U.S. government team at the inaugural U.S.-China Strategic Economic Dialogue in Beijing in 2006. He has chaired or served on numerous domestic and international health groups and committees, including serving as: co-chair of the U.S.-Australia Medicines Working Group; co-chair of the U.S.-Ireland R&D Steering Committee; and as a U.S. representative at the World Health Organization.

Eric is a graduate of Harvard University and Columbia University School of Law. While at Columbia, Eric was a Senior Editor of the Columbia Law Review and received a Certificate in International Law from the Parker School of Foreign and Comparative Law. Eric is admitted to practice in the United States Supreme Court and the State of Illinois.

About CFAA

Chinese Finance Association of America (CFAA) is an independent not-for-profit, non-partisan organization committed to serving Chinese finance professionals and others who are interested in the financial industry of Greater China. Headquartered in Chicago, Illinois, CFAA is also aimed at facilitating communications and the exchange of ideas in the financial industry between the United States and Greater China. Chinese Finance Association of America (CFAA) is legally registered in the State of Illinois. Please feel free to contact CFAA should you have any questions: info@ChineseFinanceAssociation.org. If you would like to become a CFAA member, please fill out the membership application form here.