

U.S.-CHINA ECONOMIC AND TRADE COOPERATION FORUM

September 14, 2009 • Chicago Marriott Downtown, Chicago, Illinois USA

Forum Overview

The global economic crisis has left no country and no market untouched. The crisis is seriously impacting global economic growth and the livelihood of citizens across the world. The United States and China, as two of the world's largest economies, have a special role to play in advancing global growth and promoting confidence in markets.

The China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT), together with the U.S.-China Chamber of Commerce (USCCC), will organize a day-long forum to advance understanding in both business communities of the opportunities and challenges stemming from the crisis. The 1st U.S.-China Economic and Trade Cooperation Forum will explore critical bilateral trade and investment topics and complement ongoing efforts by the two governments to promote common solutions to global challenges and strengthen relations.
