Considering Future Career Decisions - Working in China or in the United States?

Due to the rapid development in China, there are many talented professionals considering moving permanently to China or incorporating China's development into their career paths. During this event, we seek to answer the following questions: Which individuals are best served by living and working in China? How much upward mobility exists for professionals who decide to work in China versus the United States? What are the rewards and risks for people who decide they want to move to China permanently? CFAA welcomes you to join this interactive panel discussion to learn more on these topics. CFAA's featured panelists all represent people who have either worked in China, work actively with China, or have operated businesses in China. CFAA's panel discussion will be of great interest to globally-oriented students and professionals who are evaluating their future career options.
