Announcement of 2014 Key Events

CFAA was recently selected by The University of Chicago Booth School of Business as one of the non-profit organizations receiving detailed strategic consultation in 2013 which included a comprehensive survey among our members and network. As suggested by the conclusion of this consulting project, we decided to organize our events in 2014 in a more systemic and structured way focused on four quarterly topical forums. There will be other changes and improvements that CFAA will implement and introduce in the next few months. We are welcoming your suggestions and ideas in order for CFAA to better serve our mission and the finance community going forward. Following is the preliminary schedule of our events in 2014 with more details to be announced. CFAA is looking forward to your continuous support and participation in 2014.

January 31, 2014, 5-7pm – CFAA Happy Hour at Howl at the Moon
